

118TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 1325

To establish a partnership with nations in the Western Hemisphere to promote economic competitiveness, democratic governance, and security, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

APRIL 26, 2023

Mr. RISCH (for himself and Mr. MENENDEZ) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

A BILL

To establish a partnership with nations in the Western Hemisphere to promote economic competitiveness, democratic governance, and security, and for other purposes.

1 *Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,*

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Western Hemisphere 5 Partnership Act of 2023”.

1 SEC. 2. UNITED STATES POLICY IN THE WESTERN HEMI-
2 SPHERE.

3 It is the policy of the United States to promote eco-4 nomic competitiveness, democratic governance, and secu-
5 rity in the Western Hemisphere by—

(1) encouraging stronger economic relations, respect for property rights, the rule of law, and enforceable investment rules and labor and environmental standards;

19 SEC. 3. PROMOTING SECURITY AND THE RULE OF LAW IN 20 THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE.

21 (a) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
22 gress that the United States should strengthen security
23 cooperation with democratic partner nations in the West-24 ern Hemisphere to promote a secure hemisphere and to 25 address the negative impacts of transnational criminal or-26 ganizations and malign external state actors.

1 (b) COLLABORATIVE EFFORTS.—The Secretary of 2 State, in coordination with the heads of other relevant
3 Federal agencies, should support the improvement of secu-4 rity conditions and the rule of law in the Western Hemi-
5 sphere through collaborative efforts with democratic part-
6 ners that—

7 (1) enhance the institutional capacity and tech-
8 nical capabilities of defense and security institutions 9 in democratic partner nations to conduct national or 10 regional security missions, including through regular 11 bilateral and multilateral engagements, foreign mili-
12 tary sales and financing, international military edu-13 cation, and training programs, and other means;

14 (2) provide technical assistance and material 15 support (including, as appropriate, radars, vessels, 16 and communications equipment) to relevant security 17 forces to disrupt, degrade, and dismantle organiza-
18 tions involved in illicit narcotics trafficking, 19 transnational criminal activities, illicit mining, and 20 illegal, unreported, and unregulated fishing, and 21 other illicit activities;

22 (3) enhance the institutional capacity and tech-
23 nical capabilities of relevant civilian law enforce-
24 ment, attorneys general, and judicial institutions 25 to—

(A) strengthen the rule of law and transparent governance; and

(B) improve regional cooperation to disrupt, degrade, and dismantle transnational organized criminal networks and terrorist organizations, including through training, anticorruption initiatives, anti-money laundering programs, and strengthening cyber capabilities and resources;

21 (6) counter the malign influence of state and 22 non-state actors and misinformation and 23 disinformation campaigns;

24 (7) disrupt illicit domestic and transnational fi-
25 nancial networks;

(8) foster mechanisms for cooperation on emergency preparedness and rapid recovery from natural disasters, including by—

12 (9) foster regional mechanisms for early warn-13 ing and response to pandemics in the Western 14 Hemisphere including through—

15 (A) improved cooperation with and re-
16 search by the United States Centers for Disease
17 Control and Prevention through regional pan-
18 demic response centers;

(B) personnel exchanges for technology transfer and skills development; and

(C) surveying and mapping of health networks to build local health capacity.

23 (c) LIMITATIONS ON USE OF TECHNOLOGIES.—
24 Operational technologies transferred pursuant to sub-25 section (b) to partner governments for intelligence de-

1 fence, or law enforcement purposes shall be used solely 2 for the purposes for which the technology was intended.
3 The United States shall take all necessary steps to ensure 4 that the use of such operational technologies is consistent
5 with United States law, including protections of freedom
6 of expression, freedom of movement, and freedom of asso-7 ciation.

8 SEC. 4. PROMOTING DIGITALIZATION AND CYBERSECURITY
9 IN THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE.

10 (a) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
11 gress that the United States should support digitalization 12 and expand cybersecurity cooperation in the Western 13 Hemisphere to promote regional economic prosperity and 14 security.

15 (b) PROMOTION OF DIGITALIZATION AND CYBERSE-16 CURITY.—The Secretary of State, in coordination with the 17 heads of other relevant Federal agencies, should promote 18 digitalization and cybersecurity in the Western Hemi-
19 sphere through collaborative efforts with democratic part-
20 ners that—

21 (1) promote digital connectivity and facilitate e-22 commerce by expanding access to information and 23 communications technology (ICT) supply chains that 24 adhere to high-quality security and reliability stand-25 ards, including—

(A) to open market access on a national treatment, nondiscriminatory basis; and

(B) to strengthen the cybersecurity and cyber resilience of partner countries;

(2) advance the provision of digital government services (e-government) that, to the greatest extent possible, promote transparency, lower business costs, and expand citizens' access to public services and public information; and

12 (A) promote the inclusion of components
13 and architectures in information and commu-
14 nications technology (ICT) supply chains from 15 participants in initiatives that adhere to high-16 quality security and reliability standards;

(C) effectively respond to cybersecurity threats, including state-sponsored threats; and

(D) to strengthen resilience against cyberattacks and cybercrime.

3 SEC. 5. PROMOTING ECONOMIC AND COMMERCIAL PARTNERSHIPS IN THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE.

5 (a) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
6 gress that the United States should enhance economic and 7 commercial ties with democratic partners to promote pros-8 perity in the Western Hemisphere by modernizing and 9 strengthening trade capacity-building and trade facilita-
10 tion initiatives, encouraging market-based economic re-
11 forms, strengthening labor and environmental standards, 12 and encouraging transparency and adherence to the rule 13 of law in investment dealings.

14 (b) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of State, in coordi-
15 nation with the United States Trade Representative, the 16 Chief Executive Officer of the Development Finance Cor-
17 poration, and the heads of other relevant Federal agencies, 18 should support the improvement of economic conditions in 19 the Western Hemisphere through collaborative efforts with 20 democratic partners that—

14 (C) building relationships and exchanges 15 between relevant regulatory bodies in the 16 United States and democratic partners in the 17 Western Hemisphere to promote best practices
18 and transparency in rulemaking, implementa-19 tion, and enforcement, and provide training and 20 assistance to help improve supply chain man-
21 agement in the Western Hemisphere;

22 (D) establishing regional fora for identi-
23 fying, raising, and addressing supply chain
24 management issues, including infrastructure

1 needs and strengthening of investment rules
2 and regulatory frameworks;

3 (E) establishing a dedicated program of 4 trade missions and reverse trade missions to in-5 crease commercial contacts and ties between the 6 United States and Western Hemisphere partner 7 countries; and

8 (F) strengthening labor and environmental 9 standards in the region;

10 (2) establish frameworks or mechanisms to re-
11 view and address the long-term financial sustain-12 ability and national security implications of foreign 13 investments in strategic sectors or services;

14 (3) establish competitive and transparent infra-
15 structure project selection and procurement proc-
16 esses that promote transparency, open competition, 17 financial sustainability, and robust adherence to 18 global standards and norms; and

19 (4) advance robust and comprehensive energy
20 production and integration, including through a 21 more open, transparent, and competitive environ-22 ment for United States companies competing in the 23 Western Hemisphere, including by—

24 (A) facilitating further development of in-25 tegrated regional energy markets;

(B) improving management of grids, including technical capability to ensure the functionality, safe and responsible management, and quality of service of electricity providers, carriers, and management and distribution systems;

10 (D) establishing a process for surveying
11 grid capacity and management focused on iden-
12 tifying electricity service efficiencies and estab-
13 lishing cooperative mechanisms for providing 14 technical assistance for—

15 (i) grid management, power pricing,
16 and tariff issues:

(E) assessing the viability and effectiveness of decentralizing power production and transmission and building micro-grid power networks

1 to improve, when feasible, access to electricity,
2 particularly in rural and underserved commu-
3 nities where centralized power grid connections
4 may not be feasible in the short to medium
5 term; and

(F) exploring opportunities to partner with the private sector and multilateral institutions, such as the World Bank and the Inter-American Development Bank, to promote universal access to reliable and affordable electricity in the Western Hemisphere.

12 SEC. 6. PROMOTING TRANSPARENCY AND DEMOCRATIC 13 GOVERNANCE IN THE WESTERN HEMI-
14 SPHERE.

15 (a) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
16 gress that the United States should support efforts to 17 strengthen the capacity of democratic institutions and 18 processes in the Western Hemisphere to promote a more 19 transparent, democratic, and prosperous region.

20 (b) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of State, in coordi-
21 nation with the Administrator of the United States Agen-
22 cy for International Development and heads of other rel-
23 evant Federal agencies, should support transparent, ac-24 countable, and democratic governance in the Western

1 Hemisphere through collaborative efforts with democratic 2 partners that—

3 (1) strengthen the capacity of national electoral 4 institutions to ensure free, fair, and transparent
5 electoral processes, including through pre-election
6 assessment missions, technical assistance, and inde-
7 pendent local and international election monitoring 8 and observation missions;

9 (2) enhance the capabilities of democratically
10 elected national legislatures, parliamentary bodies, 11 and autonomous regulatory institutions to conduct 12 oversight;

13 (3) strengthen the capacity of subnational gov-
14 ernment institutions to govern in a transparent, ac-15 countable, and democratic manner, including 16 through training and technical assistance;

17 (4) combat corruption at local and national lev-
18 els, including through trainings, cooperation agree-
19 ments, and bilateral or multilateral anticorruption 20 mechanisms that strengthen attorneys general and 21 prosecutors' offices; and

22 (5) strengthen the capacity of civil society to 23 conduct oversight of government institutions, build 24 the capacity of independent professional journalism, 25 facilitate substantive dialogue with government and

1 the private sector to generate issue-based policies,
2 and mobilize local resources to carry out such activi-
3 ties.

4 SEC. 7. WESTERN HEMISPHERE DEFINED.

5 In this Act, the term “Western Hemisphere” does not 6 include Cuba, Nicaragua, or Venezuela, except for pur-7 poses of section 6.
